

All Boys Divisions

- 25 Minute, Running Time Games
- One Timeout per Game
- Faceoffs after goals
- All penalties will be one-minute running time. The penalty will start when the officials restart the game after calling the penalty.
- New York State high school rules will be in effect for everything else, except for fighting or flagrant verbal use.
- Any foul language will result in a penalty, continued or excessive abuse will result in that player's expulsion.
- If a player is kicked out of a game, they are done for the remainder of the tournament.
- Players must be in the appropriate grades for their group for this school year (2023-2024).
- Overtime for all divisions will start immediately after the whistle to end regulation. There will be no break.
- All teams must have an adult coach to act as team representative.
- All teams must be at your field, with your players, ready to go at start of game. If teams are not, then game could result in a forfeit.

Boys Grades 1-2 Division Specific Rules

- No body checking. There is no such thing as a brush, contact to helmet will be a head penalty.
- No Time Served Penalties, teams will be given a fast break
- 1 Coach per team allowed on field
- No Long Poles
- 10v10

Boys Grades 3-4 Division Specific Rules

- No body checking. There is no such thing as a brush (like modified rules), it will be called a head penalty.
- 10v10, Long Poles are allowed
- All penalties are one minute running time

Boys Grades 5-6 Division Specific Rules

- No body checking. There is no such thing as a brush (like modified rules), it will be called a head penalty.
- 10v10, 4 Long Poles may be used
- All penalties are one minute running time

Boys Grades 7-8 Division Specific Rules

- NY State Modified rules
- No such thing as a brush
- There is a two-step rule in body checking. Anything more than two steps (even if legal) will result in a minute penalty

Boys JV and Varsity Division Specific Rules

- NY State High School Rules